

Sacred Bodhi Tree

(Through this gate)

This tree is a descendant of the tree that the Buddha sat under in Bodh-Gaya, India, on the night of his enlightenment. This tree is a living connection to our teacher, the Buddha, and his spiritual attainments. When people place offerings at the base of the tree they do this remembering his qualities and the gratitude we have that he shared the teachings with us.